

The Murdock Top 10 List of things we've learned from you and promise to never forget...

1. Never underestimate the power of a determined and fearless woman.
2. Stand up straight when you walk into a room – don't cross your ankles/feet—be confident
3. Never use the words 'I think' when presenting.... it's 'I know'
4. You will likely be one of the few females in the room, and therefore you will be noticed...use this to your advantage
5. You can't have it all - what do you want? Focus on that, go for it, ask for it...
6. Don't be afraid to think outside of the box, bend the rules, and it's ok to ask forgiveness and not permission
7. It's important to celebrate your colleagues – recognize birthdays, milestones, holidays, congratulate on a job well done, laugh at yourselves and have some fun along the way!
8. If you make a mistake, own it, fix it, move on. Side note: Don't make the same one twice.
9. Always give it your best and go the extra mile, it is rarely crowded.
10. The most important lesson I learned over my 9+ years working with Karen...Never go to an agency brunch without mimosas....champagne is always needed...
